

British Literature Summer Reading Assignment Seniors 2024-25

Assigned Novels:

- 1984, George Orwell

Welcome to British Literature! An important component of the English program is the Summer Reading assignment. The three main goals of this assignment are to keep you active in reading, broaden your horizons, and challenge your thinking skills. The Summer Reading Assignment is a graded assignment; your knowledge of the work's content will be discerned through a visual depiction, summative assessment, and essay. The poster will be due during the first full week of school; the date of the essay will be announced in class.

I. Theme Project: A Visual Analysis of Theme – Due at the end of first week of school or as assigned in class.

- The Visual Analysis (assigned during the first week of school)
  - You will create a visual representation of a theme of the novel.
  - As you read this summer, pay attention to why you think the author wrote the book: what message or observation about life is the author putting forth?
  - More details about how to complete this assignment will be provided the first week of school.

II. Thematic Essay: Written during school.

- You will be writing a thematic literary analysis essay on the novel.
- As you read, pay attention to the message that the author is putting forth. Remember, all authors write for specific purposes; as critical thinkers, our job is to figure out that purpose.
- We will work on the essay's construction, during class, prior to writing it.

III. Exam

- You will take an exam that will focus on reading comprehension and analysis
- The exam will not be on the first day of school; however, you should be prepared to discuss the book at length on the first day in order to prepare for your exam
- The exam will include plot, character, theme, and basic literary devices
